Quotation of retirement or further extension of service of Mr. Darashah, Superintendent, Revenue Survey.

OPINION OF THE COUNCIL.

Mr. Darashah may be given the privilege leave due to him from the 10th November 1922 and retired at the end of that period.

Mr. D. Trinivasiengar may be appointed to succeed him and given Rs. 900 from the date on which he relieves Mr. Darashah.

Chief Secretary to Government.

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr. D.K.Darashah, Superintendent, Revenue Survey, attained the age of superannuation on the 10th November 1922. His services were extended first to 30th June 1923 and subsequently to 10th November 1923. In July 1922, Mr.Darashah brought to notice that he would forfeit the four months' privilege leave to which he was entitled unless he took it before the date of his superannuation and said that in view of heavy and pressing work in the Department, he did not desire to take leave then provided he was permitted to take leave after superannuation. This request was recommended by the Council and sanctioned by His Highness on the 16th August 1922.

2. His case was considered in Council on the 16th instant when the following resolution was recorded:-

Mr.Darashah may be given the privilege leave due to him from the 10th November 1923 and retired at the end of that period.

Mr. D.Srinivasiengar may be appointed to succeed him and given Rs.900 from the date on which he relieves Mr.Darashah.

3. Mr. Srinivasiengar was deputed to the Survey Department as Special Officer in December 1921 and he has been under training in that department for over eighteen months. It was the intention that if he proved himself fit he should in due course succeed to the headship of the department. The reports that I have received of his work in that department have been quite satisfactory. Before his transfer to the Survey Department, he was in charge of the duties of the Revenue Secretary to Government and his compeers in the general line have been acting as Deputy Commissioners, his immediate junior Mr.Taj Peeran being in receipt of a salary of Rs.1,000 as acting Deputy Commissioner, Second Class.

4. Mr.Darashah has already been given one year's extension and is also being given the benefit of four months' privilege leave thereafter. I consider it desirable that the selected officer, who has had sufficient training, should now be put in charge of this department and that there is no special reason for granting further extensions to Mr. Darashah. The proposal to give him the privilege leave due to him from the 10th November 1923 and retire him at the end of the period of such leave may therefore be sanctioned.

5. As regards Mr. Srinivasiengar's salary, as already remarked, officers junior to him in the general line are already drawing higher salary though not permanently. He has been drawing Rs. 800 for a very long time and as the pay of the Superintendent, Revenue Survey, is Rs. 800-100/2-1,200, it would be fair to allow him to draw Rs. 900 from the date on which he relieves Mr. Darashah. This recommendation also may be graciously approved.

My dear Sir,

I have submitted your D.O. letter of the 23rd
September, regarding Mr. Darashah, to His Highness.

In reply, I am directed to say that His Highness agrees with you that, in the circumstances explained in your letter, the simplest course is to let Mr.
Darashah retire in November next, as already decided,
Mr. D. Srinivasa Iyengar taking his place.

The Submission Note is herewith returned.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Darsaka has been promised the privilege leave due to him after superannuation. His request is that he may be granted 6 months' leave, including 2 months' furlough at average salary. Grant of furlough after superannuation has been refused in most cases, but was sanctioned as a special case in 1681 meet. Mr. Darsaka has urged reasons for treating his case as special.

From the Submission Note of 26-8-23 I understand that the leave (privilege) applied for by Mr. Darsaka before Superannuation was for 4 months and that its grant was deferred in the public interest. The grant of leave for a longer period than 4 months is not admissible under art 150 A M.S.R. What can be allowed preparatory to retirement, as a special case, is only what was asked for by the officer and deferred by Govt.
